

Petrosea Completes Acquisition of Coal Mine Owned by Kemilau Mulia Sakti

PT Petrosea Tbk (PTRO) together with its wholly-owned subsidiary, PT Karya Bhumi Lestari (KBL) has successfully completed the transaction to acquire 100% shares of PT Kemilau Mulia Sakti (KMS).

KMS is the owner of 99% shares of PT Cristian Eka Pratama (CEP), a company engaged in coal mining operations and is a holder of a Mining Business Permit – Production Operations (IUP-OP) with its operating area located in Tering District, Kutai Barat Regency, East Kalimantan Province.

The completion of this acquisition transaction with a total transaction value of US$90.563.572 was marked by the signing of the Sale and Purchase Deed on 23 June 2023 by all parties involved in the sales and purchase transaction.

This transaction is a realization of Petrosea's diversification to becoming a mine owner in order to strengthen the Company's performance as well as provide added value to all shareholders and other stakeholders in the upcoming future. Going forward, Petrosea's strategy is to become a sustainable resource company that also continues to diversify its business into other mineral sectors through the provision of sustainable mining and engineering, procurement & construction (EPC) services.
